Hi Folks,

Story from last week's Portland Tribune inquiry finally posted. FYI I'm expecting an OPB story from Cassandra Profita who called me late yesterday. Stay tuned.

Hi Steve,

Thank you for your inquiry, and for your patience with our responsiveness.

Following up here on our earlier conversations. In reply to your inquiry, EPA's current official statement on these issues is described in the attached Oct. 12 letter to Oregon DEQ. We are declining your invitation for an interview at this time.

Thank you,
Suzanne

Hi Sean.

I'm working on an update story for the Portland Tribune today on the sampling plan for the Portland Harbor Superfund site, and was hoping to speak with you.

Are you free to talk any time today?

Tomorrow might work as well, though I'd hope to wrap up my reporting today and begin writing the story.

I'm best reachable on cell at 503-422-2492.

Thanks!
